Will I be notified before my card is charged for tickets?

Yes, you will receive a friendly reminder about your upcoming payment prior to the preauthorized charge. At that time, you can update your ticket order, change your payment information, or cancel your membership.

What happens if my payment method fails?

An automatic email will be sent to you to update your payment details before the deadline. If you don't update your payment details, before the deadline, you will not be entered into the draw, and the you will remain on the list of current members until the next draw, repeating triggering another payment failed email.

Can I cancel my membership?

Yes. You can easily cancel your membership by logging into the portal:
<https://members.kin2win.ca/>.

How will ticket price changes impact my membership?

If ticket prices change, we will notify you and adjust your ticket order to the new ticket package that is closest to the price point of your current ticket package. You will also have the option to cancel your membership.
